

Tailgate TALKS

July 28

3 p.m.

- Why make changes to your operation?
- Incorporating cover crops into a livestock grazing plan
- Benefits of using cover crops in managed grazing
- Use of portable fencing in livestock operations
- Demonstration: Installation of 6' tire tank as an alternative livestock water source

Venue: Corley Farm,
17833 4 Corners Lane Gorham, Kansas

6:30 p.m.

- Why make changes to your operation?
- Benefits of using cover crops in managed grazing
- Benefits of providing alternative water sources
- Utilizing geotextile fabric and rock in feeding operations
- Livestock wells: Depth to water, well construction, water quality testing and maintenance

Venue: Blundon Farm
17953 Fairfield Road, Russell, Kansas

Following this event, supper will be provided at the Blundon Farm by the Big Creek 4-H Club.
RSVPs are appreciated.

You're invited!

Join us for the latest in our Tailgate Talks series, where we share important information and practical knowledge about best management practices. Specialists and local landowners will offer expert knowledge and first-hand experience on how you can protect water quality in the community.

Speakers

Glen, Marcia, Gary and Jeffrey Blundon, landowners

Rob and Michelle Corley, landowners

Herschel George, KCARE watershed specialist, retired

Stacie Minson, KCARE watershed specialist

Augustine Obour, K-State Agricultural Research Center, Hays

Michael Thompson, Norton County farmer/rancher

Contact:

Stacie Minson, KSU Watershed Specialist
785-769-3297
sedgett@ksu.edu

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service. K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer. Issued in furtherance of Cooperative Extension Work, Acts of May 8 and June 30, 1914, as amended. Kansas State University, County Extension Councils, Extension Districts, and United States Department of Agriculture Cooperating, Ernie Minton, Director. This event is made possible through United States Environmental Protection Agency Clean Water Act, Section 319, grant funds administered by the Kansas Department of Health and Environment.